RE: MUR 3774

Dear Mr. Anderson:

The Federal Election Commission has the statutory duty of enforcing the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). The Commission has issued the attached subpoena which requires you to appear and give sworn testimony on Friday, August 15, 1997, at the Federal Election Commission, 999 E St., N.W., Washington, D.C. in connection with the investigation of the above-captioned matter. At this time, the Commission has made no finding that there is reason to believe you violated any provision of the Act.

Because this information is being sought as part of an investigation being conducted by the Commission, the confidentiality provision of 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(12)(A) applies. That section prohibits making public any investigation conducted by the Commission without the express written consent of the person with respect to whom the investigation is made. You are advised that no such consent has been given in this case.

You may consult with an attorney and have an attorney present with you at the deposition. If you intend to be so represented, please advise us of the name and address of your attorney prior to the date of the deposition.

Pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 111.14, a witness summoned by the Commission shall be paid $40.00 plus mileage. Subsequent to the deposition, you will be sent a check for the witness fee and mileage.
